MATTER: PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
PERMANENT INJUNCTION

ORDER

Having examined the complaint and the Request for Preliminary Injunction and Permanent Injunction, filed electronically on December 28, 2016, by the plaintiff, and brought for our consideration today December 29, 2016, and considering the extraordinary nature of the request for a preliminary injunction presented by the plaintiff, a hearing is scheduled for January 9, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. at courtroom 904 for the only purpose of determining the basis of the extraordinary preliminary recourse requested.

The attorneys for the parties shall come to the referred hearing prepared for the following:

1. To present in a concise and narrative form the pertinent facts that support the [party's] reason to request, deny or intervene. All participants will join efforts to identify the facts that are central [essential] to the controversy.
2. Formalize stipulations of facts, notify the oral and documentary evidence to be offered and examine the possibility of an agreement. To that effect, each attorney must have the authorization of the party represented, or else the party shall attend the hearing that date or be available via telephone communication with the attorney at the Tribunal.
3. Discuss his/her legal theory.
4. Conduct the evidentiary hearing.

The plaintiff shall serve summons, and also serve notice of this order and copy of the complaint, on all defendants before January 5, 2017, in accord with the provisions of Rule 4.4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, 32 L.P.R. A. Ap. V R 4.4, Civil Procedure; Corujo Collazo v. Viera Martinez, 111 D.P.R. 552, 556-557 (1981).

The parties shall include in their motions a fax number and their email address.

The defendants are admonished that if they do not appear to the scheduled conference, the Tribunal will conduct the hearing, without further notice or hearing, and may issue the requested preliminary injunction [without defendants' participation].

The defendants are admonished that the filings in the case shall be done through the SUMAC electronic system. Therefore, compliance with Administrative Order No. OA-JP2013-173 issued by the Chief Judge of the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico, Honorable Federico Hernández Denton, that came into effect on January 28, 2014 as well as with other administrative directives approved implementing such order is required.

The filings in the case will be done electronically in accord with the aforementioned.
